A BOURBON ROMANCE.

From the Montreal Herald Paris Letter.

A curious proof of the persistence of loyalty to the elder branch of the Bourbons has just come to light. Thirteen years ago an old Legitimist, without family, wishing to make the Count de Chambord his heir, and not knowing how to transmit his little fortune to the Count without danger of its being seized or otherwise taken possession of by the powers that were, hit on the curious expedient of confiding his money (some £440) to his old servant, as thorough a devotee of "Henry V." as himself, directing her to put the money into a basket, to carry it to the Count as soon as he himself should be dead and buried. The old servant promised her master to do as he enjoined, and, accordingly, on the morrow, after the funeral of the latter, she set out on her journey, carrying the money with her in a little basket, and, having reached Frohsdorff in safety, was admitted to the Prince's presence and executed her commission. The Prince, greatly touched by the incident, endeavored to get the old woman to accept the money for herself; but she utterly refused to do so, or to accept any pecuniary remuneration for her trouble. "Is there nothing I can do for you?" exclaimed the Count, disappointed at her repeated refusals. "Yes, Your Majesty," returned the old woman, "let me kiss you!" The proffered kiss having been received and repaid by the Count, to the old servant's intense delight and glorification, the latter returned to Paris, where she has since resided, and where she died a short time ago. After her death her relatives discovered, to their utter amazement and equal satisfaction, a sum of over £3,000 in bank notes, the notes being rolled up in a dozen little parcels and placed in a little basket under her bed. This astonishing windfall was forthwith taken possession of by the sister of the deceased, a poor old soul of 85 years of age, with next to nothing to live upon, and to whom the sum thus found appeared a sort of California and Golconda rolled into one, when, to the dismay of the heiress and the other relatives, they came upon a paper which proved to be the will of the deceased, bequeathing the whole to the Count de Chambord. It was soon ascertained, through the relations of the postman, that the deceased had received, every Christmas, from the Count de Chambord a handsome present of money in the shape of a check. The postman had thus been the medium through which the Count's gifts had reached the old servant, she had regularly cashed the checks thus sent her, but had never touched a penny of the money, the whole of which was found in the basket. The sister, Mlle. Conord, has sent a letter to the Count de Chambord, informing him of the affair. There is little doubt but the Count will authorize the poor old woman to take possession of the whole.

A Clever Swindle.

A very cold swindle was recently perpetrated on the farmers around Neenah and Menasha. Two men with a lumber wagon went through the country from house to house, asking for samples of wheat to the amount of a teek or a half bushel, which they said they were going to send to Chicago for inspection by Keene, the great wheat speculator, who intended to make a corner on wheat next month and was going to send agents all through the country buying up wheat from farmers at an advance of 10 cents per bushel in order to effect the corner. The men claimed to be agents of Keene. Almost every farmer complied by giving at least half a bushel, which was duly numbered and the name of the contributor duly recorded to give the transaction a business like appearance. It is said that several parties were out at the same time on this kind of an expedition, and when they each got a good big load of wheat took it to the mills at Neenah, sold it and then skipped out.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Our Tenure of Life

Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life.—Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose—these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by that supreme renovant.—With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquillized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his life tenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 10, 1879.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The House of Representatives completed its organization yesterday, the vote on speaker being: James 81, Herrington 65, Frew 9. The subordinate officers selected by the Republican caucus were all elected. On taking the chair Speaker James returned thanks in a happy speech.

In the Senate a lot of resolutions, including one by Mr. Bash, calling on the general government to finish the Chicago custom house, and one by Mr. Whiting, asking for free coinage, were referred. Bills were introduced by Mr. Whiting regulating the rate of interest at 6 per cent, by Mr. Bash, giving the Chicago Park Board control over streets; one by Artley for the establishment of a bureau of statistics of labor; and by Archer abolishing the Board of Equalization. These bills were ordered to a first reading.

The Governor's message will be sent in to day.

THE FAMOUS DES MOINES SPEECH.

An Opinion of It.

The public slight offered to Mr. Grant by the common council of the city of Cork, a few days since, has astonished the nation, and in seeking reasons for their action we find it authoritatively stated that it was in retaliation of expressions given in Mr. Grant's speech at the convention of the Army of the Tennessee at Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 29, 1875. Within the past week that speech has been published from one end of the country to the other, and all men may judge it for themselves.

To show how supremely ridiculous was the action of the Cork council in the premises, and how wofully they misunderstood the effect of that now famous speech upon our most intelligent Catholic fellow citizens, we copy below a paragraph from a lengthy and powerful editorial upon "The President's Speech at Des Moines," in the Catholic World (monthly) for January, 1876:

Trying as hard as we can to lash ourselves into fury; trying to fancy ourselves insulted, by representing to ourselves that the head of this nation has gone out of his way and abused his dignity, in order to cast an aspersion at a large and respectable class of the community, we are forced to give it up, and to lay down our pen; for we find nothing in the oration with which we are in the least disposed to take issue. On the contrary, we are prepared to join our tribute to the burst of applause which echoes through the land. We are convinced that, if it meets with the attention which it merits, the country at large, and Catholics in particular, will treasure the "Des Moines Speech" among the "Sayings of the Fathers." Like Washington's farewell, and Webster's mighty peroration, and Lincoln's noble and pathetic Inaugural, it will pass from the vulgar atmosphere of party strife into the pure and serene empyrean of immortality.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The friends of Hon. John G. Holden, of Danville, will deeply sympathize with him in the affliction that has come upon him, which is thus mentioned in the Danville News of the 9th:

Little Mamie Holden, a daughter of our assemblyman, John G. Holden, dropped dead last evening at 7:15 o'clock, while sitting in a chair at home.

She had been apparently well during the day, and her sudden death is a sad bereavement to her parents and friends. Little Mamie had been subject to heart disease, and this is the supposed cause of her death. The suspension of the heart's action caused her to rise from her chair when she fell violently upon the floor, striking upon the right temple, which sudden shock and bruise may have hastened her death.

Her father, who had just gone to Springfield on last Monday to enter upon his duties as a member of the legislature, was immediately telegraphed for, and will probably return home on the first train.

THE Peoria National Democrat has lost faith in Senator Grover. Noticing the statement that the Senator will rise in the Senate and deny the charges against him, the Democrat says: "Mr. Grover should be made to understand that the United States Senate has nothing whatever to do with that thing; that the place for him to clear himself is in the state of Oregon and before the Oregon people and the world; and he had better be about it quickly, and do it clearly, and by something very much more definite than a personal denial from his seat in the Senate."

THE spiritualists of Bismarck are trying to solve the mystery hanging about the late "Mrs. Corporal Noonan," about whose death at Fort Lincoln so much has been said. A trance medium has opened communication with the so-called Mrs. Noonan, and, according to a reporter of the Bismarck Tribune, has elicited the information that the real name of the man who played the part of Mrs. Noonan was Joseph Drummond, and that his reason for changing his dress was to escape punishment for the murder of the Grosser family in Washington in 1863. Will the Bismarck medium explain why Corporal Noonan committed suicide?

NIAGARA FALLS IN WINTER.

The Grandest and most Magnificent Ice Formation at the Falls Ever known in its History. Thousands of People Coming from all Parts of the Country to Witness the Imposing Spectacle.

The following article composed of extracts from the Buffalo Courier of a recent date, will enable our readers to form a faint idea of the grand exhibition of nature now to be seen at that celebrated watering place:

"The frost king has won a glorious triumph at Niagara Falls, and England and America are linked together by a new bond—a chain of ice—which owes nothing for its existence to the helping hand of man.

THE GREAT ICE BRIDGE.

A Courier reporter was sent to the Falls yesterday and learned that the ice bridge became an assured fact on Sunday last. For some days a large amount of snow covered ice from Lake Erie has been passing over the Falls and about the beginning of the week old inhabitants began to look expectantly for an ice bridge. At 8 o'clock Sunday morning the accumulated mass of ice came to a stand-still beneath the suspension bridge, and the watchers began to hope there would be a bridge with a smooth surface—a thing unprecedented so far as history or tradition bear record. But the hope was soon dispelled, for the huge dam of ice suddenly began to heave, grind and break up into fragments with a loud noise, which is described as being exceedingly trying to the nerves. At 10 o'clock there was a second stand-still, and it seemed certain that the bridge had been formed, but at 2 in the afternoon there was a third and more severe disturbance as the prisoned waters exerted their giant strength in an effort to be free.

A GRAND BATTLE.

The battle was a grand one. Vast quantities of ice and snow were caught in the water's arms and tossed hither and thither like playthings, fighting and struggling with one another and grinding themselves to fragments in the fierce engagement. Great hummocks weighing hundreds of tons were pushed into the air and remained there as monuments of the fearful battle. Large boulders were torn from the shore and swept into the stream.

The slow, awful strength of the infuriated waters was so apparent that it seemed as if they must rend the great gorge in twain and escape from their thraldom by some new road; but there was only one gateway for them, and as they could not break the mile-wide dam in two, they lifted it up bodily and swept away beneath, still raging, but completely conquered by the armies of the Frost King. Having thus succumbed to the inevitable humiliation, the water allowed the ice to rest above it, accepting the yoke which it could not break despite its boasted strength. And now the victor rests quietly, torn and ragged it is true, but invincible, and so it will remain until the mightier beams of the spring sun deprive it of its strength and once more restore Niagara to its accustomed freedom. The bridge is nearly a mile in length, extending from a line drawn perpendicularly to Point Lookout in the American Park half way to the railroad bridge, and filling the gorge from shore to shore.

THE FIRST VIEW

of the Falls brings the heart up into the mouth with a shock that is almost painful in its suddenness and force. Everything is so changed—so transfigured. Ice everywhere! Ice upon the rocks, upon the trees, encroaching upon the cataract itself and deadening its roar—even stealing away a large portion of its power, to all seeming. The story of Sampson and Delilah comes into mind as one sees how the ice has shorn the waters of their strength. As the spectator stands upon this point the wind blows the spray into his face and soon covers him all over with ice jewels, but what cares he for the spray in the enthusiasm of the glorious view! In the Park the ice has been as destructive as it is beautiful, and though it has robed the trees and buildings in snowy beauty it has torn down huge limbs in its overpowering weight. Looking over to the Canadian shore the observer can see hugh icicles of many tons weight hanging like the ropey locks on the foreheads of giants in the story books. But those sights are nothing when compared to the broad sheet of snow ice which lies at its feet. There it is—the conqueror of Niagara—sparkling in the sunlight as quiet and peacefully as a patch of snow."

An opportunity for viewing Niagara in its present glorious condition seldom occurs twice in a life time, and thousands of people from all parts of the country are visiting the Falls for the purpose of enjoying the luxury of such a scene. In our opinion, a cheap rate excursion by some enterprising railroad company to enable the people to visit Niagara Falls, would be immensely popular at this time and liberally patronized.

Contrasting Remarks.

Indianapolis Journal (Rep.)

It must have been highly gratifying to Tilden, as he sat in a box at the Bryant memorial celebration, to listen to the burst of applause which shook the house when the orator of the occasion referred to Hayes, and quoted his celebrated phrase, "He serves his party best who serves his country best." Contrast with that Sammy's confidential remark when informed of his nomination at St. Louis: "The people want reform, and that's the reason they have nominated me."

WASHINGTON WHISPERS.

A MISSING MAN.

More Shooting by Bogardus.

Another Snow Storm in New York

NEW YORK, Jan 9.—Mr. Bogardus broke 3,000 glass balls successively without a miss at Gilmore's Garden last night, and expects to break 3,000 more to day.

Dr. Carver says: "I accept the proposition made by Bogardus to shoot 1,000 glass, 500 single and 250 pairs, the single balls to be sprung from the Huber trap, and will meet Bogardus Monday to arrange preliminaries."

Capt. Bogardus resumed shooting at 11 o'clock, and at noon had added 375 broken balls to his 3,000 score of yesterday, with no miss yet. The Captain's thumb and the fore-fingers of both hands are damaged from blisters, caused by the heating of the gun.

At 2:10 Bogardus, without a single miss, added another 1,000 to his score.

Capt. Bogardus concluded his attempt to break 6,000 glass balls out of his 200 this evening at Gilmore's Garden. He was also matched against Abe Kleinman, of Chicago, giving him 200 broken balls out of 1,000. Up to Wednesday night broke 3,000 balls without a miss, and Kleinman fired at 400, and missed six. To night Bogardus broke 2,680 balls without a miss, but his shoulder got sore and his hand swollen and livid from great exertion. He commenced to shoot badly, and at the end of 3,000 shots he had missed thirteen balls. He broke 6,000 balls in 6,013 shots. Mr. Kleinman then commenced shooting, and missed seven balls out of 400 shots. This, with the six balls missed on Wednesday, just made a tie between himself and Bogardus. The feat of the breaking of 5,680 balls without a miss was never accomplished before.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Alfred Anderson and Theodore Steiner, two survivors of the Emily B. Souder, arrived here to-day. Their story of the wreck is the same in detail as that published at the time. They say that they went down with the vessel, but after coming to the surface they got upon the main hatch with one of the passengers, who was probably Mr. Klemmer, of Brooklyn. The passenger was washed away next morning. They were forty-eight hours on the hatch when picked up and taken to Kingston. The Captain of the steamer left the ship on a pilot house raft, with the first engineer, second mate and one of the passengers, and drifted away in the darkness. The survivors were terribly frozen, and their hands and feet badly swollen. They were sent to this city by the American Consul at Kingston, and worked their passage, besides paying $10 cash.

CLINTON, Ill., Jan. 7.—The city has been thrown into considerable excitement over the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Harry Stauffer, ex-Overseer of the DeWitt County Poor Farm, last Thursday. He is a wealthy and highly respected citizen, and fears are entertained that he was been foully dealt with, as at the time of his leaving this city he was known to have over $3,000 upon his person. He had just resigned his position as overseer and was about to move to Mason, Ills., his former home, when it was discovered that his whereabouts were not known.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 9.—At Avoca, Wis., Wednesday, an examination was held over the body of Henry Doty, eighteen years old, recently found in the Wisconsin River. It appeared that the father of the boy was a hard character, who, when enraged, was in the habit of whipping the boy terribly. The evidence showed the father struck the boy on the head with some weapon, killing him, and then, fearing detection, shot a pistol-ball through the head, and to give the appearance of suicide, threw the body and pistol in the river. The father and his nephew, Wilson Doty, are in jail at Dodgeville.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 9.—A caucus of Republican legislators was held to-night in the Senate chamber, for the nomination of a United States Senator to succeed J. B. Chaffee. Fifty-three of the fifty-five Republican members were present. On the first formal ballot N. P. Hill received 21, Chaffee 7, Chilcott 7, Bowen 6, scattering 12. Hill was nominated on the fifth formal ballot, the vote resulting: Hill 32, Chaffee 3, Chilcott 6, Bowen 4, scattering 8. Great enthusiasm prevails among Hill's friends and the bitterness of his enemies is fast disappearing under the influence of general good feeling. Mr. Hill is holding an impromptu levee at Charpiot's Hotel. The election takes place on Tuesday next.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 9.—Another four hours' snow storm set in at noon to-day, and up to this hour (8 p. m) a large body of snow has fallen, and the storm continues fiercely. A stiff wind is blowing, and fears are entertained of another general blockade.

GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 9.—Clark Hubbard, wife and two children, en route west from Sherman, were frozen to death near Pilot Point on the night of the 5th.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9.—Nearly a month ago the Senate passed a resolution requesting the House to transmit to it a copy of the testimony taken by the Potter Committee reflecting upon Senator Matthews. This has not been done. Senator Allison, the Chairman of the Matthews Investigating Committee, says that until the House supplies this testimony no meeting of the committee will be held. It has been determined not to summon James E. Anderson as a witness, and that individual will have to pay his own way east from Nevada.

A meeting of the House Judiciary Committee will be held to-night, to appoint a sub-committee to go to Chicago and investigate the charges made against Judge Blodgett. A member of the committee says that the sub-committee will probably consist of Messrs. Proctor Knott, Lynde (of Wisconsin) and Frye (of Maine), and that it will probably leave for Chicago on Sunday night.

Senator Beck gave vent to his dislike of Secretary Sherman in the Senate to-day. He charged him with being an autocrat, and responsible for many mercantile failures throughout the country during the past year. He said that Secretary Sherman acted as though the Treasury was his private property, and that he had violated the law in not paying out silver for interest on the public debt. He intimated that unless Secretary Sherman changed his policy, the next Congress, which would be Democratic in both branches, would impeach him for high crimes and misdemeanors.

Senator Burnside informed the Senate that there were so many errors and mistakes in the army bill that he thought it best to have it reprinted, and the Senate ordered it done. Gen. Burnside then gave notice that as soon as the Patent Law bill was disposed of, he would move to take up the Army bill for consideration.

PITTSTON, Pa., January 9.—At seven o'clock this morning, just after the miners had descended into the Pennsylvania Coal Company's shaft No. 4, near this place, a terrible gas explosion occurred near the carriage-way, by which several men were supposed to have been killed. There has been for a few days a great change going on in a few of the mines adjoining No. 4, making itself visible upon the surface by immense circles, toppling over school houses, dwellings, etc. The gas forced itself in No. 4, and when Peter Daley, a mining boss, opened the door leading to the old workings, an explosion took place which shook the earth in the vicinity with terrific force. The mining boss is burned terribly, and Patrick Loftus severely injured. The remainder of the miners were in another chamber and escaped. The head house was totally dismantled, consequently several hours elapsed before the scene of the explosion could be reached. It will take probably two weeks to get the shaft into working order.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 9.—On the 27th of December a mail-driver named Casey left Sun river in a mail-cart for Fort Benton. Not reaching Twenty-eight Mile Springs Station, half way to Benton, and a blinding snow-storm prevailing at the time, it was supposed he was lost. Search was made, and on the 5th instant Casey was found seated in cart, which his horse was drawing slowly along, about twenty miles north of the Springs station. During all this time he had wandered on the prairie in nearly a circle, picketing his horse and camping out at night. His feet were frozen, but it is believed not seriously, and that he will not lose his limbs. The only thing that passed his lips was tobacco and snow, the thermometer the whole time being below zero.

Personal.

From the Albany Journal.

A professor in Cornell, lecturing on the effect of the wind in some western forests, remarked: "In traveling along the road I even sometimes found the logs bound and twisted together to such an extent that a mule couldn't climb over them, so I went round."

Superiority of American Nails.

An English workman thus testifies in the English Mechanic of Nov. 29th, 1878, to the goodness of American wares:

"But I speak of things which I know thoroughly well when I say that in very many things our manufactures are not fit to be shown in the same street with American ones; and this not merely in nick-nacks or little ingenuities, as to which it is tolerably evident we have no pretension to enter with any comparison. I only invite any one who doubts my statements to compare such a rough common matter as cut nails. Our rubbish, with half of them split up, which tend to turn round in the wood and split it, and with conical heads, look very poor against the straight, clean nails, with well-formed heads, which the Americans used to send out to Australia, and which, when I had once seen them, prevented me from ever buying an English nail again as long as I could get the American ones."

SCARLET fever is very nearly an epidemic in New York City. The Board of Health is using every means to check the spread of the disease. It has notified families in which the disease occurs to keep their children from school, and an inspector has visited the tenement houses to impress upon parents the necessity of all possible isolation of every such case. It has also endeavored to enforce the health ordinance against the carrying of soiled linen, possibly infected, in street cars. Thus far there has been no abatement of the disease. While Dr. Day, the Sanitary Superintendent, says it "cannot be called an epidemic," the Sun says "if it is not it is not far from it."

LIVER IS KING.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Whatever name or designation is given to cause of Fever and Ague, or other intermittent disease, it is alway malaria.—Eliminate that from the system, and a sure cure is the immediate result. The safest, surest, most effectual, and, at the same time perfectly harmless preparation for producing this happy effect, is CLIFFORD'S FEBRIFUGE. It represents, in their utmost purity and free from all irritating properties, the immediate principles of the East India Cinchona bark, as grown on the Neilgherry hills. It is the most powerful antidote to malaria known, and yet as harmless as water.

EXCHANGES from all directions bring tidings of extremely cold weather, so that no matter which way the wind blows it comes from snow banks and brings nothing but frost and chill. Under this state of affairs a thaw need not be apprehended at present.

THE prospect now is that circuit court will continue at least three weeks after this. The grand jury will considerably enlarge the People's docket by its findings at this adjourned session, and probably some of the indictments returned by them will be tried this term.

A CURE for "bad colds" not very well known is the following: When the cold is first noticed coming on, or even is slightly advanced, place a small pill of camphor gum in the mouth and let it dissolve; be careful and not take too much, as dangerous results may follow. Court convened at 8½ o'clock, and acted upon cases as follows:

COMMON LAW DOCKET.

Dunham & Dills vs. Illinois Midland Railway Co.; assumpsit. Leave to file amended declaration by 1st of April, and case continued.

Bond & Allerdice vs. Jacob Stutsman; assumpsit. Leave to file several replications to 4th plea.

Pending this case court adjourned to 1½ o'clock.

A HAPPY OCCASION.—The fashionable dressmakers, Misses Maggie and Rosa Walsh, who occupy rooms in Dr. Stoner's building, were pleasantly surprised last evening by a large party of friends who called upon them rather unexpectedly, and on invitation of the Misses Hattie Bury, Annie Maroney and Lizzie Flynn, the projectors of the affair, took posession of the establishment. Dr. Stoner generously donated the use of the hall lately occupied by the reform club, and in due time the entire party engaged in the delightful pleasures of dancing, the music being furnished by the Italian Band.—While the company was whirling in the mazy waltz, the two sisters, Maggie and Rosa, entered the hall, and welcomed their friends with all the charming grace with which they are so happily gifted. At an early hour this morning the party dispersed for home, all voting the affair one of supreme enjoyment and the refreshments splendid YOUNG LADIES' REFORM CLUB.—The entertainment to be given by Miss Helen Potter and Miss Dollie Millikin at the tabernacle, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 22, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Reform Club, will be eminently worthy of the patronage of our citizens, and we hope the young ladies will have a crowded house. As an artistic reader Miss Potter has no superior in the country, and as a performer on the piano Miss Millikin ranks at the head of the profession The combination will furnish a rare treat.

GONE TO SPRINGFIELD.—The Italian band left for Springfield this morning on the early train, where they will doubtless reap a rich harvest of laurels. They came here several months ago with the intention of remaining but a short time, but they met with such a flattering reception that whatever might have been their desire, they found it difficult to move on. In all probability the band will "strike ile" at Springfield, and if they do will give Decatur the "Boston glide," and never more shall we hear the "Mocking Bird" and "Baby Mine," which they play so delightfully.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR MARSHAL.—Under the head of announcements to-day will be found the name of Policeman Joseph P. Leake, whose experience of two years on the police force of the city well qualify him for the discharge of the important duties of the office to which he aspires Mr. Leake also filled the responsible position of alderman for his ward in a highly acceptable manner. If elected marshal he will be an efficient officer.

THE HUTCHINSON CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—This evening this family of talented vocalists will sing their charming songs at the tabernacle, furnishing an entertainment that no lover of good music can afford to miss. Tickets are on sale at Curtis & Ewing's, and those who propose to attend the concert will do well to procure them before evening. The admission to any part of the house is only 25 cents.

THE ICE BUSINESS.—Our ice packers are putting up ice to run them two seasons, being apprehensive that there will not be as heavy a crop next winter as this. Operations are about being brought to a close, packers having all their houses full and some of them have piled up quite a quantity out of doors, with a view to covering it hereafter.

COL. HURLBUT, of New York, who has spoken on the subject of temperance very acceptably at Springfield and other points, will speak at the Tabernacle on Saturday. Let everybody turn out and hear him.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. H. Royce, presagent of McAllister's Minstrels, is at Priest's hotel.

Col. Hurlbut and lady, of New York, are guests at Priest's hotel.

M. Einstein will enter upon his duties as salesman at Theo. A. Gehrmann's next Wednesday.

James S. Carter is one of Collector Foster's assistants, and not C. C., as reported recently.

The Western Union Telegraph office has a new messenger boy in the person of Ed. Prior, who succeeds Charles Murphy.

Mrs. Frank Reeser will leave to-night on the 10:40 train for York, Penn., on a visit to her parents, who are reported dangerously ill.

Miss Katie Miller, sister of the Merchant street milliner, is absent from the city on a visit to her mother at Mechanicsburg, Penn.

Mr. George Downing is now at home, having been summoned here by the severe sickness of one of his twin children. We are glad to learn to-day that the child is somewhat better, and hopes of its recovery are entertained..

We are sorry to learn that Mr. W. H. Reeme, the North Water street grocer, has been confined to his bed by sickness for several days, though he is now slowly improving.

Jesse Lockhart, of Niantic, is in the city to-day. He says he would like a democrat for a United States Senator; but as between Oglesby and Logan, he is for the first named all the time.

Charlie M. Royce, agent of McAllister's minstrels, is in town making arrangements for the appearance of that popular troupe at the opera house, Jan. 14th.

Burt Hardy and J. M. Ehrman both report that the latest advices from Louisville convey the intelligence that sleighing is remarkably good in that region.

"The Tribe of Asa" arrived by the ten o'clock train from the north this forenoon and registered at Priest's Hotel. The company consists of F. S. Blackman, Wm Brockway, Asa B. Hutchinson, J. C. Hutchinson, O. D. Hutchinson, Nellie D. Hutchinson, Miss Alice L. Hutchinson and Miss Carrie W. Hutchinson.

Charles H. Newell wishes the REPUBLICAN to state, most emphatically, that he is in no manner whatever connected with the Lady Hilda dramatic combination.—He is down on the bills as the company's advance agent, which he claims is a most egregious error, and says the management had no more right to put his name there than they had to insert the name of the leading minister of the city.

Asa B. Hutchinson, of the Hutchinson Family, gave the REPUBLICAN a call at noon to-day, and expressed himself on the Senatorial question. The quartette will sing "Snowbound" and "Queen of the Bells," and many other beautiful songs at the tabernacle to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fullenwider, of Mechanicsburg, stopped at the Priest House last night. They are just married, and were in the city to purchase their outfit for housekeeping. They loaded down two teams with furniture, stoves, carpets and the like, and returned to their home this afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Dictator of the Universe, in his providence, to remove from our midst by the hand of Death our esteemed brother and friend JOSEPH G. STARR; therefore be it

Resolved, That we deeply lament the loss thus inflicted upon us, but as it becomes humble creatures to bow with reverence to the mandates of their Creator, we submit to this dispensation, hoping that our loss is our brother's eternal gain.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the members of his family in this their great and irreparable loss, and commend them to look to the Supreme Dictator of the Universe for that comfort and consolation he only can give in this sad bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy furnished the city papers for publication.

REMOVED TO TERRE HAUTE.—From the following, clipped from the Terre Haute Express, it appears that the general offices of the Illinois Midland Railway will be removed from Paris to Terre Haute:

"After due deliberation, the management of the Illinois Midland Railway yesterday decided to remove the general offices from Paris, Ill., to this city. Rooms have been engaged over the drug store of Buntin & Armstrong, in Deming's Block. This is as good a location as could have been desired. The officials of the road will occupy the new offices as soon as the rooms are made ready. We feel sorry for the plucky little city of Paris, but the fates like Terre Haute better."

COMMENCING to-morrow, January 11th, all cloaks and winter dress goods will be placed upon our counters, and marked just one-half of former prices. We make a big sacrifice to close out the above goods at once, while the season is present. All who come expecting to find goods as advertised will not be disappointed. Remember the place, Lambert & Co.'s New York Store.

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.—The second annual meeting of the State Bar Association was held at Springfield yesterday.—The session was held in Representatives' Hall, over fifty members of the association being present, including prominent lawyers from all parts of the state. Hon. A. B. Bunn, Hon. A. J. Gallagher, of this city, and Albert Emerson, of Monticello, are members of the association. The session will continue through to-day, and end with the annual banquet and ball at the Leland to-night.

FREIGHT train No. 53, for St. Louis, was abandoned last night, and the cars that were to have been taken by it made a part of 55.

THE MAGDALENE.

The serpent tongue of an insidious foe,
The giddy thought of inexperienced age,
The passion fires, that erst were burning low,
Fanned by the tempter to resistless rage—
Then by her side through life's lone wastes of snow
Forever moves a wraith of tongueless woe.
The why dull Reason deigns not to explain,
Her empire reaches not beyond the facts;
'Tis for the heart to feel the joy and pain
That shadow Passion in her dubious acts.

CHAMBERS CYCLOPEDIA OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.

Volume 1 of the new and beautiful edition of this excellent work, just issued by the AMERICAN BOOK EXCHANGE, 55 Beekman street, New York, embraces the history of our literature from the earliest period to the times of Queen Elizabeth, with lives of all noted authors, and choice specimens from the writings of each. All who are interested in the higher class of literature will welcome this new edition, with its clear type and handy form, and all who have been longing for the era of cheap books, will be more than satisfied with its wonderfully low price. The entire work, in eight volumes, numbering over 3,200 pages, is offered, delivered free of expense, to those who subscribe during January, in paper binding, for $2.25; cloth, $3.25; or half morocco, gilt top, $4.75. Specimen pages, showing size, style, type and paper of the entire work, and giving full particulars, including inducements to clubs, will be sent free on request. To those who would like to examine it, volume one, which is complete in itself, containing 416 pages, will be sent, postpaid, for nominal prices, 20 cents; cloth, 35 cents; half morocco, gilt top, 50 cents. Purchasers have the option of getting the other seven volumes by paying at any time the remainder of the regular subscription price. The publishers sell only to subscribers direct, instead of giving to dealers and agents the usual 50 or 60 per cent. discount to sell for them, which accounts for the remarkably low prices.

A specimen volume, in cloth binding, can be seen at the office of this paper, and those who desire to order can add their names to a club, which will soon be forwarded.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—The Rev. C. B Roberts, of Waukesha, Wis., will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday, morning and evening.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of the late Samuel McWhinney will take place from the residence, No. 104 North Church street, at two o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon. Services by Rev. Dr. Goodwin.

THIS forenoon W. P. Shade perambulated down Water street in the direction of the National bank, with both hands in his pockets, whistling that popular air, "Grandfather's Clock." The society will meet to night and lay him on the shelf 15 days.

NOW FOR BARGAINS.—Those fine all-wool Cloaks and Dress Goods, at the New York Store, are being sold at a big sacrifice. Big bargains in Dress Goods. All should examine.

SOCIABLE THIS EVENING.—The ladies of James Chapel will be pleased to see everybody at their sociable to-night, and special pains will be taken to make everybody feel at home.

COMING.—McAllister's minstrels at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, Jan. 14th. Mr. Charlie M. Royce, their advance agent, gave us a call to-day.

OUR FAMILY BREAD.

Truly, the most important adulterations to avoid are those which are calculated to injure the "staff of life." Merchants who supply their customers with pure articles like Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, retain better patrons, have a larger trade, and make more money than those who recommend cheap adulterated powders.

Mc ALLISTER'S MINSTRELS.

The Port Jervis, N. Y. Daily Union says:

The McAllister's Minstrels appeared in the Opera House, this village, Saturday evening, and they were greeted by a large audience. The entertainment was the best of the kind given in some time. The performance kept the audience in one prolonged roar of laughter, relieved at times by little pieces of sunny melody. A proportion—greater than usual in such shows—of the programme was original, but what was not entirely new was of the same racy, sparkling quality as that heard here for the first time. Everything was first-class in the line of minstrelsy, and we can cheerfully recommend the troupe to the press and the people.

They will appear at the Opera House on Tuesday evening next, Jan. 14.

MEN ... YEARLY CONTRACT ...

The Daily Republican.

A CURIOUS KIND OF SWINDLE.—"A well-dressed and well-appearing man asked a State street bookkeeper, Thursday, for small bills for a five. After the bookkeeper had given him the bills he changed his mind, and wanted a five dollar bill for small bills, keeping the change first given him in his hand. He then changed his mind again, and wanted a ten dollar bill for two fives, and in that way mixed the bookkeeper up so that he finally beat him out of $5."—The same mode of swindling, and very likely the same swindler, happened at the Hurlbut Bank of Winsted, where a fellow giving his name as F. E. Jackson asked small bills for a $100 bill. He was given a new bill, but wanted an old one, as he wished to mail it, he said.—He was accommodated with an old bill and left, forgetting to return the new one, and the fraud was not discovered for some time. The trick lies in confusing by repeated requests and exchanges of money. This game was successfully tried on one of the bank officers in Windham county a few days since, and but for the quick wit of an officer, who was at once put on the fellow's track, the bank would have been out fifty dollars or more. The rascal was caught and gave over the money.—[New Haven Palladium.

WORDS OF WARNING.

An Undniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick-headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, etc. Its sale now reaches every town on the Western Continent, and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS

THEY ARE WORTH THEIR

WEIGHT in GOLD

READ WHAT HE SAYS:

DR. TUTT:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

REV. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.

Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Sold Everywhere, 25 Cents.

WHAT THE GENERAL SAID!

A noted General being asked by some of his friends how he liked Texas, replied: "If I was obliged to choose between Hell and Texas, I would choose the former." The above saying is verified every day by parties moving from the North, East and South, and as they cannot decide exactly as to the existence of the former, they certainly avoid Texas, and like sensible, industrious people, seek a productive country, such as Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska and the Far West. Reader, are you contemplating a trip to such a country on business or pleasure? If so, select the line having the least change of cars and best accommodations. The Old Reliable Hannibal & St. Joseph R. R. (the Pioneer line west of the Mississippi River) offers you through Day Coaches and Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars from Chicago, Ills., Toledo, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Indiana, to the Missouri River without change. Tourist and land-seeker's round trip excursion tickets on sale by this popular route at all Eastern Ticket Offices.
